THE WINTER SEASON

We have been working on a very special project! We have recorded audio and video from community members who lived and worked in Webster when it was a booming mill town, from the 1950's through the 1970's. This Oral History project will showcase stories and memories of mill life and Downtown night life. We have interviewed 15 participants. The interviews are now being edited and compiled into a longer video, and will be screened at select locations in the area during the month of April!

Thanks to Karen Warinsky, Nichols College, Samuel Slater Experience, and the Webster Senior Center for their cooperation and participation in this exciting endeavor!

Hope you're staying warm this Winter,
Sondra Murphy
Library Director

Happy New Year from the GEK Friends!

We hope you have all had happy holidays and that the New Year will be a good year for you and for all of us at GEK. 65,754 patrons came through the GEK door counter in 2025! We hope to count you in 2026!

Look back at Fall 2025 highlights at Gladys E. Kelly Library with us...

Bites, Books, and Blooms happened on September 25. What a good evening it was - we had a full house, 26 wonderfully creative floral arrangements, and delicious food. It was truly a community celebration!

Goose the Lizard was our very special visitor on November 1! He brought his Alligator friend with him - what a fun hands-on experience with nature.

We hope Goose will come back for some summer fun!

In anticipation of the holidays, the Friends had a successful Lobby Book Sale and an on-going Gift Wrapping event in the Community Room. Santa and Mrs. Claus visited on December 20 and we had a 'Noon Years Eve' party with crafts, snacks, and a balloon drop at 12:00 noon!

There are many activities planned for all of you at the GEK Library through the winter - come inside, get warm, find a new book, and enjoy!

Who are the Friends? We are a non-profit volunteer group whose purpose is to support the library so it can continue to improve and expand library services, facilities, equipment, and activities for all ages in our greater

Webster community, all free to everyone. We fundraise and use community grants to financially support library programming. More Community grant awards decreased over the last year, so Friends' support continues to be so important - both financially and through your volunteering. Our Friends volunteers are very important for the success of our library programs - watch for emails!

BE A FRIENDS MEMBER - Membership cards are at the front desk, or you can email us at gladyskellylibrary.org. TO BE A FRIENDS VOLUNTEER - email us at gladyskfriends@gmail.com. ***.

It's fun! It's rewarding! And we need you!

Thank you again for your support. We hope to see you at the library soon!
